Tribal Mental Health Research
Bridging Academy and Community

Presented by the Amah Mutsun Speaker Series and the American Indian Resource Center

November 13th, 2010
Humanities Lecture Hall,
University of California, Santa Cruz

From 1- 4pm.

Featuring keynote speaker:

Joseph P. Gone, PhD

Associate Professor, University of Michigan

As a cultural psychologist, Gone engages in his research the key dilemma confronting mental health professionals who serve Native American communities, namely how to provide culturally appropriate helping services that avoid the neo-colonial subversion of local thought and practice. He has published articles and chapters concerning the ethnopsychological investigation of self, identity, personhood, and social relations in American Indian cultural contexts vis-a-vis the mental health professions.
